Dodd Attorneys Accused Of Witness Intimidation

United Press International

Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio) yesterday attacked the law firm defending Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) against charges of misconduct. He charged the firm with attempted intimidation of Senate witnesses.

In a Senate speech, Young said "it would appear to me that some of the acts and actions of certain of the battery of attorneys representing the respondent (Dodd) have been improper.

"I should like to call the Senate's attention to continued reports of intimidation of witnesses conducted by one of the largest law firms in the United States — Cahill, Gordon, Reindel & Ohl."

The Senate Ethics Committee plans to resume hearings on the charges against Dodd next Tuesday. Julius Klein is the scheduled witness.
